U3A Moreland Members' Facebook Policy

U3A Moreland has a Private Facebook Page which is used by Members to keep in touch with each other and provide information about U3A Activities and Programs. It is one of several communication tools used by U3A Moreland, as listed in the U3A Moreland Communication Policy & Procedures.

The U3A Moreland Facebook Page is visible to anyone who searches for the Group, but only Members of the Group can see the names of other Group Members and what they post.

Operation of the Facebook Page is managed by the U3A Moreland Facebook Administrator, who is a member of the U3A Moreland Marketing Team.

Only U3A Moreland financial Members can become Facebook Group Members.

Eligible Members can apply to become Members of the Group via the Facebook Page, and their Membership will then be approved by the Administrator.

Operation of the Facebook Group is governed by the Community Standards as set down by Facebook at <https://transparency.fb.com/en-gb/policies/community-standards/>

Members of the Facebook Group must adhere to a set of Rules, as approved by the U3A Moreland Committee of Management (see below), which are overseen by the Administrator. The Rules are located on the Facebook Page under About this Group.

The Administrator may delete any post or comment which does not conform to the Rules.
